Start Earning Commissions on Sympathy Floral Sales

Your guidance, support and understanding are so important to your families during their times of loss and grief. Now you can enhance that support to them, and extend it to their family and friends, by offering truly original floral arrangements, plants, and gift baskets from the #1 online florist. Fully integrated with the Tributes.com Obituary Platform, the 1800Flowers.com Funeral Home Partnership Program allows you to deliver added value while simultaneously earning commissions for your business from online sympathy flower sales.

It's easy to get started. Simply contact your Tributes.com sales and support team and let them know that you would like to participate in this exciting e-commerce program. They will set up your floral account and work with you to select advertising creative to promote on your online obituaries.

1800Flowers.com® makes it easy for visitors to your online obituaries to select the right gift for the right person at the right time. All floral selections will be fulfilled and delivered by local florists. Plus, as a participating funeral home partner, you receive monthly sales commissions and reports so that you can continuously evaluate the success of your online floral program.

To find out more, contact Tributes.com today at Support@Tributes.com.
